Our six day Branson trip (9/17-22) was fast paced, super shows (9), "too-much-to-eat" fabulous meals (16), hilarious cackling, and bonding like a close-knit family. Bottom line - it was fun, fun, fun.

October Birthdays:

- 21 - Ned Fertig
- 22 - David Whipple
- 24 - Glen Weber
- 25 - Linda Hetsler
- 26 - Shirley Flood
- 26 - Pauline Tobias
- 26 - Theresa Cote
- 27 - Noemi Gonzalez
- 29 - Judy Davis
- 29 - Jerri Mercado
- 30 - Orval Carr

What a story of God's incredible grace and provision, and Mercado's yieldedness and steadfastness. You never know God's ordained twists and turns in one's life. Chicken and Steak and Chocolate Cake - Marvelous; yummy and unique. One-hundred and eighteen seniors agreed that the October 2nd luncheon was extra special.

November Birthdays:

- 3 - Larry Holbert
- 4 - John Fiest
- 6 - Dan Gehman
- 8 - Joann Hewitt
- 8 - Henry Linden
- 9 - Steve Butler

- 14 - Willa Conrad
- 14 - Bucky Davis
- 16 - Nancy Riedel

November trip: "Christmas in Paradise" (November 27, Tuesday) - deadline to register is Sunday, October 28. Cost- $50.

After a worship service, a mother with a fidgety seven-year old boy explained how she finally got her son to sit still and be quiet. About halfway through the sermon, she leaned over and whispered, "If you don't be quiet, Pastor is going to lose his place and will have to start his sermon all over again!" It worked.

Next luncheon is October 30th at 11:30 am. Come dressed in "blue" as Policeman Russ Kime from First Baptist Church in LaGrange will share - "What's it like being a cop."

December 18th Christmas trip will be in Cleveland - "The Christmas Story House" and the Botanical Garden's Winter Spectacular - "Glow." Plenty of lights and glitter. The cost of $35 includes a "brunch" at the Golden Corral.
