

The Spotlight on seniors

NOVEMBER 2018

Christian police officer, Russ Kime, got our attention and respect as he shared "What's it like being a cop" at our October 30th luncheon. The ninety-one seniors enjoyed a "sloppy-Joe" lunch along with a cop's favorite dessert - DONUTS.

I was really having trouble getting out of bed this morning, so I called my boss and asked if I could come in a little late. He said, "Dream on." I think that was very nice of him.

Christmas Banquet - December 4th
The singing sisters, Deb & Dee, will lift up their voices with a focus on Christ's birth. A Swiss steak family-style luncheon is being prepared. The festivities begin at 11:30 am in the fellowship hall.

Our December "Christmas lights" bus trip will take place Tuesday, December 18th. Our three light "shows" will include "Glow" at the Cleveland Botanical Gardens, A Christmas Story House and Museum and the unbelievable house display in North Ridgeville. Prior to the lights, we will have "brunch" at the Golden Corral in Brookpark. Our last 2018 "on-the-road-again" bus trip will cost $20 + $10 + $5 per person which is due no later than December 16.

Reserve these dates for our 2019 "Happy Trails to You" bus trips.
January 22; February 19; March 19; April 16; May 14-15 (Shipshewana); June 18; July 16; August 20; September 17-20 (Washington, D.C.); October 15; November 19; December 16-17 (The Ark). There will be a flier available on December 16th (Sunday) with detailed listing of our 2019 trips, locations and costs.

"It was a cover up!" That is, the six covered bridges in Ashtabula County that the 64 seniors walked under on their October 16 "on-the-road-again" bus trip. A very informative guide, chicken dinner and sunny fall-like weather made it an exceptional day.
